AN ACT

To repeal section 1.100, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to population designations in statutes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 1.100, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted 2 in lieu thereof, to be known as section 1.100, to read as follows:

1.100. 1. The population of any political subdivision of the state for the 2 purpose of representation or other matters including the ascertainment of the 3 salary of any county officer for any year or for the amount of fees he may retain 4 or the amount he is allowed to pay for deputies and assistants is determined on 5 the basis of the last previous decennial census of the United States. For the 6 purposes of this section the effective date of the 1960 decennial census of the 7 United States is July 1, 1961, and the effective date of each succeeding decennial
8 census of the United States is July first of each tenth year after 1961; except that 9 for the purposes of ascertaining the salary of any county officer for any year or 10 for the amount of fees he may retain or the amount he is allowed to pay for 11 deputies and assistants the effective date of the 1960 decennial census of the 12 United States is January 1, 1961, and the effective date of each succeeding 13 decennial census is January first of each tenth year after 1961.

14 2. Any law which is limited in its operation to counties, cities or other 15 political subdivisions having a specified population or a specified assessed 16 valuation shall be deemed to include all counties, cities or political subdivisions 17 which thereafter acquire such population or assessed valuation as well as those 18 in that category at the time the law passed. Once a city [not located in a], 19 county, or political subdivision has come under the operation of such a law a

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

20 subsequent [loss of] change in population shall not remove that city, county, 21 or political subdivision from the operation of that law. No person whose 22 compensation is set by a statutory formula, which is based in part on a 23 population factor, shall have his compensation reduced due solely to an increase 24 in the population factor.
